Medical.

Hoofland's German Bitters,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathising closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heart-burn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking, or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which has assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of the diseases. In this connection we would submit these well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.
PREPARED by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever;
PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM,
induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite improves, food is relished, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes clear and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, the weak gain in flesh and strength, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, will find in these remedies a friend in the use of the BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instantly restore the functions of the digestive organs to a healthy action, and by their use, strengthen and invigorate the whole system, and give vitality and energy to the nervous and debilitated, thereby prolonging their days.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail. Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are from men of note and unchallenged character, whose statements may be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penna., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find Hoofland's German Bitters a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

GRANT, having tanned the hides of his foes, is about to change his business, and become a Cabinet-maker.

SPEAKER COLFAX, Vice President elect, was married on Wednesday to Miss Nellie M. Wade, niece of Senator Wade of Ohio.

THE N. Y. Tribune is out against any increase of the salary of the President, or any other officer. So are other leading papers.

TO BE PITIED—Copperhead Editors who are vainly gnashing their teeth over the utter overthrow of their party at the last election.

IN KENTUCKY, the Republicans made large gains on the popular vote. But the vote of the Rebel soldiery was too strong for the great soldier of the Republic, in that Rebel-bound State.

IT IS supposed the Copperheads will run General LEE next time, and come "square out" on the Rebel Platform.—The reason given is, they are tired playing "hide and seek" and being beaten at it.

THE Harrisburg State Guard states that in Towamensing, Carbon county, a full Democratic election board received the vote of a negro; and that he voted for Seymour and Blair!

The latter fact explains the former.

STUPID AND MALICIOUS—The Copperhead papers in their comments on the Election. No wonder; the fall has broken the neck of their party, and spoiled all the plans of the place-hunters.

OVER 5,000 persons have been killed in the Southern States within the last year, for the crime of being Republicans. Not a single person has been arrested, or tried, or even indicted for one of these outrages! When GRANT has power, human life, and the rights of all, will be protected everywhere.

THE Republican vote in Maryland has grown over 8,000 the past year.—The Copperhead vote has decreased 1,200 in the same time. The Copperhead majority is 31,847 against 41,644 in 1867. MARYLAND is improving. A few more such campaigns, and Republicanism will be dominant in that stronghold.

THOSE Copperheads who are prepared to co-operate in overthrowing the government, abolishing the Constitution, and substituting for it an "unlimited monarchy"—are requested to send their names and P. O. address to Hon. JEREMIAH S. BLACK of York, who in August last, publicly announced his purpose to lead the movement, in case of GRANT's election.

THE "TAMMANY RING"—the most corrupt combination in this country—have made a point by electing HOFFMAN, their tool, Governor of New York. Had SEYMOUR been elected President, their joy would have been complete. As it is, they would be disposed to rejoice over what they have accomplished, if they were not impelled to weep over the greater thing they have failed to accomplish.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph says that the friends of Gen. GEO. W. CASS, of Allegheny, are preparing to present him for the next Copperhead candidate for Governor. HIESTER CLYMER desires another chance, and Gen. WILLIAM MCCANDLESS of Philadelphia, now a State Senator, is said to be in the field. CASS's former hostility to Mr. Buchanan defeated him in 1856, and probably will again. MCCANDLESS's prospects appear to be the brightest, at present—CLYMER being practically "shelved."

TO BE DESPISED—The poor malignant, who can see nothing in the late political contest but a decision as to who should have the offices. The controversy was far higher—as to whether free principles should have their perpetual home, and their full development, in this land; or whether the government was to be handed over to a base and reckless faction who are secretly against free government and are the allies of, and sympathizers with, monarchy. The people have settled the thing effectually.

APPEARANCES indicate a concerted effort this winter to effect the removal of the Capitol, from Washington to a point near the Mississippi river. The argument chiefly used is the out-of-the-way character of the present location of the capital; its lack of accommodations; the danger in which Government employees are constantly placed by reason of the turbulent element with which Washington is surrounded; the inconvenience of the city as a place of residence, and the propriety and justice of making the location of the capital more central.

MORE than the usual number of questions concerning State constitutions were submitted to the people at the late elections. The policy of impartial suffrage was carried in Iowa and Minnesota, and was defeated in Missouri. Minnesota also voted on the questions of abolishing grand juries and of amending the constitution in relation to the internal improvement lands. Both these amendments were defeated. New Hampshire voted favorably on calling a convention to revise the constitution, and Illinois unfavorably.

AMONG those prominently named for election to the U. S. Senate from Pennsylvania, are Hon. J. K. MOORHEAD, of Allegheny county, for ten years and now a Representative in Congress for Pittsburgh; THOMAS M. MARSHALL, Esq., of Allegheny county, an eminent member of the Bar, and a Grant elector; Hon. GLENNI W. SCOFIELD, of Warren, for six years and now a Representative in Congress from the Warren district; Hon. GALUSHA A. GROW, of Susquehanna, formerly Speaker of the House, and Chairman of the Republican State Committee; Hon. JOHN SCOTT of Huntingdon, a lawyer of high rank and character; Hon. WILLIAM H. KEMBLE, of Philadelphia, late State Treasurer; and Hon. BENJAMIN H. BREWSTER, of Philadelphia, now Attorney General of the State.—Gov. GEARY was also named, but has declined, having consented to be a candidate for re-nomination as Governor.

WHERE THEY COME FROM.

Respectable Democrats must feel rather queer while looking over election statistics and noticing the sources whence come the majorities on which the party is dependent for success.

New York city, which contains sixty thousand professional thieves, pickpockets and burglars, gave about sixty thousand Democratic majority, the greater part of which was rolled up in the wards embracing the Five Points, Corlaer's Hook, Mackerelville and Water Street Dance Houses. These dens of vice, ignorance and crime invariably roll up immense Democratic majorities, and at the late Presidential election threw a vote sufficient to give the State to Seymour, Blair and Hoffman. In 1862 Seymour was elected Governor by these same outcasts, who gave him 10,981 majority over Gen. Wadsworth, in a vote of 13,275, while his entire majority in the State was only 10,752.

The Fourth Ward, Philadelphia, is also noted for its vicious population, rivalling Mackerelville and Five Points of New York, and its denizens, like those of the latter, go it strong on Democracy. At the recent election the 6th division of this Ward returned 33 votes for Grant and 1013 for Seymour, and the 8th division 158 for Grant and 1201 for Seymour!

Could any more striking commentary on the utter demoralization of the Democratic party be written, than the simple fact developed in these figures, that it attracts the support of the degraded, besotted and brutalized creatures who infest these centres of crime in our large cities, and who find a congenial home in the political organization which outrages and belies every principle of nomenclature in styling itself "Democratic?"

Pennsylvania—Official.

Last week we gave the official majorities of all the counties in the State except Susquehanna, which has since been received, giving Grant 1490 over Seymour. The full official vote of this State for President is as follows:—

Grant	342,280
Seymour	313,382
Republican majority	28,898
Total vote	655,662

At the October election the vote stood:—

Hartranft	331,419
Boyle	321,739
Republican majority	9,687
Total vote	653,158

Four years ago the vote stood:—

For Lincoln	296,331
For McClellan	276,316
Lincoln's majority	20,065
Total vote	572,697

The vote for President this year is the heaviest ever polled in the State, being 2,504 in excess of the October vote, and 82,965 in excess of that of 1864. Grant's majority is larger than Lincoln's by 8,885.

GOV. GEARY has issued a Proclamation announcing the election of the GRANT Electors, who are to meet in Harrisburg the first Wednesday of December to cast the electoral vote of the State. He has also issued a Proclamation, announcing the names of the Congressmen elect from this State.—Respecting the Twenty-first District, in which John Covode was the Republican candidate and Henry D. Foster the Democratic, the Governor's proclamation says:—

"In the Twenty first District, composed of the counties of Indiana, Westmoreland and Fayette, no such returns have been received by the Secretary of the Commonwealth as would, under the election laws of the State, authorize me to proclaim the name of any person as having been returned duly elected a member of the House of Representatives of the United States for that District."

This leaves the contest in the Twenty-first District in the hands of Congress.

SOME of the Copperhead papers appear to be uneasy lest the Public Debt should be increased. The November statement, recently published, shows a reduction during October, of over seven millions!

The Copperheads ought to know better, the history of their party. They make debt wherever they rule. They leave it for Republicans to pay whenever they get control. So, it has always been in this State; so it is now in the Nation. The Copperheads are a Debt-creating, and the Republicans a Debt-paying party.

THE Maryland Democrats are still under the impression that somebody will pay them for their emancipated slaves. The Cambridge Democrat has the following on the subject:

"The time allowed for the registration of the slaves of Maryland, who are emancipated by the Radicals, is drawing to a close, and we now advise all who are interested to make the proper registration before ex-Sheriff Robert Bell, Commissioner of Slave Statistics for this county.

THE ten Western States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas and Nebraska gave a majority of 285,000 for General Grant. These States, which contain more than one third of the population of the Union, voted solidly against Seymour and Pendletonianism.—New York Times.

Now add to these 76,442 in Massachusetts, 32,500 in Vermont, 27,791 in Maine, 7,000 in New Hamshire, 3,041 in Connecticut, 6,455 in Rhode Island, 28,898 in Pennsylvania, 8,000 in West Virginia, 35,000 in Tennessee, 10,000 in North Carolina, 10,000 in Alabama, 1,500 in California, 1,000 in Nevada, 9,000 in South Carolina, 500 in Oregon, and 20,000 in Arkansas, and you have the grand total of 553,051 as Grant's majority of the popular vote, without the rebel States of Georgia, Louisiana, Kentucky, Maryland, and Delaware, and the frauds in New York and New Jersey, all of which, on a fair vote, except Delaware, Maryland, and Kentucky, would have gone heavily for the Republicans.—Philadelphia Press.

GENERAL George H. Thomas' report regarding affairs in the Department of the Cumberland, gives a palpable history of the Ku-klux Klan. The report draws a gloomy picture of the present condition of affairs in Tennessee and Kentucky. "It is mortifying to acknowledge," says General Thomas, "that the State and local laws, and the more powerful force of public opinion, do not protect citizens of the Department from violence. Indeed, crime is committed because public opinion favors it." This is the language of a dispassionate official report from one of our most honored Generals.

"I WISH I could prevail on my neighbor Quinder to keep the Sabbath," said good old Mister Jones. "I'll tell you how to do it," exclaimed young Smith; "get some one to lend it to him, and I'll be bound he'll keep it. He was never known to return anything he had borrowed."

A SMART little boy was asked by a lady if he studied hard at school. He replied that he did not hurt himself much at it. "Oh," said the lady, "you must study hard or you will never be President of the United States." "Yes, ma'am;" "but I don't expect to be; I am a Democrat."

GRANT'S POLICY.

The Washington correspondence of the New York Herald contains the following:

Every little straw is gathered now to show the probable policy of the General after his inauguration. Here are two of them: In the railroad car from Chicago the other day, a gentleman said to Grant, "General, I hope when you are in office you will let us have peace in fact as well as in name." To this the General answered, "You may be sure I will, sir; I shall make peace, and a solid peace, which will satisfy all good men North, South, East and West." A brother of General Grant, who lives in Chicago, is reported to have said a few days ago that Grant intends to enforce the reconstruction laws to the very letter, so far as that duty may be bequeathed him by the existing administration. Perhaps by the time of his inauguration the whole business of reconstruction will have been disposed of, but if not, according to this fraternal authority, Grant will execute them strictly. The reason alleged for this is that Grant holds "that the will of the people is the law of the land," and that in the election just decided the people expressed their will to have these reconstruction measures enforced by endorsing the measures and platform of the Republican party. From his natural modesty he does not presume to think that it was his personal popularity that impelled the people to give the radical ticket a majority so decided, but rather that it was due to their endorsement of Congress and its policy.—So says Grant's brother.

AN EPITAPH.

IN MEMORY OF
THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

Died November 3d, 1868.

In the early years of the Republic
It was the Representative of Democratic Ideas,
The Advocate of popular Progress,
The friend of Freedom,
The Exponent of Constitutional Law,
and
THE GREAT DEFENDER
of
UNION,
PERPETUAL, SACRED AND INVIOLATE, between the American People.

THOMAS JEFFERSON,
The Apostle of the Democratic Faith,
Wrote the Immortal Doctrines of its Early Creed in
The Declaration of Independence,
In the affirmation
that
All men are Created Equal, and are endowed by their Creator
With certain Inalienable Rights,
Among which are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness,
and
Reaffirmed it in the Prophetic Warning:
"I tremble for my Country when I remember that God is Just."

In its meturer years,
THIS PARTY,
Flushed with the Insolence of Power,
Becoming corrupt with the Patronage of Office,
Forsook its Principles,
Breathed the infected atmosphere of Treason,
Inscribed "Slavery" as the legend upon its Banners,
and
Pledged itself to Fasten the Fetters on the Limbs of the Slave,
And to Plant the System
On Soil forever consecrated to Freedom.
It appealed to the lowest Prejudices of the Masses against the Negro.
It declared by a Man because he was Black,
And honored Crime
It perpetrated in the name of Democracy by a White.
It lost the Confidence of the People,
and then sought,
By Secret Organizations and wide-spread
Rebellion,
The destruction of the Republic,
The overthrow of Democratic Government,
and
The erection of an Aristocracy in the South,
Of which African Slavery should be the Corner-Stone.

During four years of War
To Vindicate the Majesty of Law and the Principles of Constitutional Government,
It
SYMPATHIZED WITH TREASON,
Pronounced the War a Crime and a Failure;
Attempted, by Discord, Desertion, Resistance, and Violence, to Provoke Civil War in the Loyal States, and
Pleaded for Peace on the basis of Disunion.

On the Restoration of Peace,
Won by the Heroism and Sacrifices of our Defenders, the Party
Appealed to the Judgment of the People, and Was CONDEMNED TO DIE
By the Voice of the Loyal Millions through the Ballot Box.

THE ROTHSCHILD FAMILY.

Baron James Rothschild, the fifth and last surviving child of Meyer Anselm Rothschild, the founder of the great banking house of the Rothschilds, died, on the 16th, at his residence in Paris.

This world-renowned family are of German descent from the Israelitish race.—Meyer Adselm Rothschild was born in Frankfort-on-the-Main in 1743. In early life he was educated for the rabbinical order, but afterward began business as a small trader, and eventually obtained a situation in a banking-house at Hanover. Subsequently he returned to Frankfort, where, after having engaged in the banking business on his own account, he became the banker of William IX., the Landgrave of Hesse. Meyer Anselm first became known as a negotiator of Government loans in 1792, by procuring from the Landgrave an amount of money sufficient to pay the ransom imposed by the French General Custine upon the people of Frankfort—as an alternative of the sacking of their city. This incident caused his services to be afterward frequently in demand among the smaller German potentates. In 1806 Napoleon decreed that the States sovereigns of Hesse Cassel and Brunswick were forfeited, and sent an army to enforce the decree. The Elector of Hesse decided on fleeing, but being the possessor of $5,000,000 in silver, which he was unwilling to give up to Napoleon, he was in a quandary as to what he should do with it. Sending for Rothschild he offered him the use of the money without interest if he would remove it to a place of safety. The offer was accepted, and the great sum was enjoyed by the banker and his two sons until the banishment of Napoleon to Elba, when the Elector gave notice that he would withdraw it. The return of Napoleon, however, caused the Elector so much alarm that he urged the Rothschild to keep his treasures at the interest of two per cent. per annum, which they did until 1823. The faithful and able management of the Rothschilds won for them the confidence of courts and financiers. Meyer Anselm had ten children, five of them sons, all of whom survived him. The five brothers constituted but one firm, in which each had an equal interest, but transacted business under five branches, each being in the charge of one of the branches. Nathan Rothschild is said to have realized $1,000,000 by knowing the result of Waterloo eight hours before the British Government. For many years the house have been the takers of the loans of the European Governments, and have in more than one instance prevented war by refusing to furnish its sinews. Between the years 1850 and 1862 they furnished in loans, $200,000,000 to England, $50,000,000 to Austria, $40,000,000 to Prussia, $80,000,000 to France, $50,000,000 to Naples, $25,000,000 to Russia, $12,000,000 to Brazil, and various smaller amounts to minor States.

The leading active partner for the past few years has been the Baron Nathan Lionel de Rothschild of London, son of Nathan, born in London 1808, and succeeding his father as head of the London branch in 1836. In 1847 he was elected to Parliament, but refusing to take the oath of office "on the true faith of a Christian," did not take his seat although regularly re-elected, until 1858, when the disabilities were removed. As the members of the family have generally intermarried, their immense wealth will in all probability remain in their hands for many years.

A NEWLY married woman in Johnstown, Cambria county, hearing that her husband was going to vote for Seymour, went to the polls with him, and saw that his vote was deposited regularly for Grant. She then dismissed him with a few words by way of parting advice, which were better relished by the crowd than the one to whom they were addressed.

A PARIS fashion writer tells of a new kind of head dress—a garland of flowers so contrived that as the heat of the dancing room increases, the petals gradually open and finally fall in the hair, disclosing a diamond or ruby heart in each. Thus the crushed flowers after a dance will be replaced before the close of the ball by a second head dress.

At the Court of Criminal Correction of St. Louis, lately, a learned lawyer, dissatisfied at his success with an Irish witness, complained to the Court. The Hibernian said, "I'm no lawyer, yer honor, an' he wants to puzzle me." Counsel—"Come now, do you swear you are no lawyer?" Witness—"Faith, an' I do an' you might swear the same about yourself without danger of perjury."

A VETERAN VOTER: At the late election in Fulton township, Lancaster county, Thos. Stansbury voted for Grant and Colfax. Mr. Stansbury is ninty-seven years of age. He has good health and intellect unimpaired; possessing at his advanced age all that is embraced in the old Latin maxim, Mens sana in corpore sano. He has been a regular voter for more than half a century, and last October, in order to be at the polls, early, walked a mile and a half.

THE body of a man known as Dow Bryant was recently found hanging to the limb of a tree, near Batesville, Ark. He was one of the murderers of Captain Simpson Mason, and he was hung about three miles from the spot where the murder was committed. He had turned State's evidence, and exposed the plot which culminated in the murder of Captain Mason, and consequently the Ku-klux swore vengeance against him. His terrible end was, no doubt, the penalty for betraying the Klan.

THE Rockford (Ill.) Chief inserts in its issue of November 5 a representation of a large monument, on which is inscribed:

"DIED, on Tuesday, the 3d day of November, A. D. 1868, of hard drink, disloyalty, and chronic cussedness, Democracy, aged about forty-three years. In youth it was firm and loyal; in its latter days it was corrupt, stiff-necked and rebellious. R. K. K.

"Ye party known
As Copperhead,
Beneath this stone
Lies very dead,
Good devil, now you've got your grip,
Be careful not to let it slip.
For if you do, you know full well,
There'll be secession, sure, in hell."

LOSING HIS PIG.—There is a miser in Liverpool who was considered impregnable to charitable associations, until a Hibernian genius "came Paddy over him."

Teddy went to his office one morning and told a piteous story about losing his pig, the only one he had,

"Shure," said Teddy, Misthress ——" naming a very excellent lady, (whose good opinion Old Hardfist was anxious to retain) "told me to come to ye, for ye wor very rich, and gev a power ov money to the poor, God bless ye! I only want to raise enough to buy me anyther little ship ov a pig."

The miser couldn't resist the influence of Mrs. ——, so he gave Teddy a crown. A few days after he met him.

"Well, Teddy," said he, "did you buy another pig?"

"Troth I did, and a fine one it is."

"Then take better care of it than you did of the other. What did the pig on last die of?"

"Die of!" said Teddy, raising his eyebrows; "shure he didn't die, he was fat enough said I kill him."

MENAGERIE ON FIRE—EXCITING SCENE.

On Saturday night last a fire broke out on Ridge avenue, Philadelphia, destroying the large saw-mill and cabinet works of Roscoe, Clark & Co. In the rear of these Mr. Forepaugh, of Menagerie fame, had put up several large buildings for wintering his animals. The fire extended to and destroyed these buildings also, the removal and escape of some of the animals causing an exciting scene.

Two or three cages of small animals were destroyed; one of them contained several specimens of monkeys, the others were filled with foxes, raccoons and wolves.—The beasts were contained in cages mounted on trestles. As soon as the flames were first discovered the animals were thought of, and citizens rushed in and rolled the cages out into the street. It was impossible to save the wagons.

Of course the fire soon gathered a large crowd to the spot, and the highest excitement reigned—an excitement, too, very materially augmented by the escape of several of the animals from the cage during the hurried confusion of rescuing them from the rapidly approaching flames. Before the fire reached the building in which were most of the cages, the firemen and citizens had succeeded in getting them out and running them along the sidewalk and the street. While this work was in progress, a tigress was seen making her way out of the building. She had escaped from the cage in which she was confined, and, bristling with fright, rushed toward the street—rapidly, to be sure—but yet with much uncertainly.

As soon as she was observed a shout arose:—"A tiger! a tiger!" and men, women and children, dismayed at the thought of encountering the formidable beast, ran pell-mell in every direction, in search of places of safety. The women shrieked, the children cried and the men yelled. The very noise lent speed to flying legs, and some of the more aged, hurrying in flight, made far better time than they had done for years. The firemen, however, stood their ground, watching a chance to capture the escaped animal. Following after the tigress, came a leopard, then a wolf. Things were getting warm, and one might easily have imagined himself—as the noise of the crackling timbers sounded to his ears, the lurid light of the flames burst upon his eyes, and the unshackled beasts passed near him—upon a Western prairie while it blazed in fire.

The people who had been gazing from doors and windows upon the scene of conflagration hastily retreated, and shutters were closed in a trice. Clouds of petticoats dodged around the corners, and many were trampled under foot in the demoralized skedaddle. The fortunate presence of Mr. Forepaugh and some of his assistants at the breaking out of the fire, together with the manly conduct of the firemen, prevented, however, any serious consequences resulting from the escape of the beasts.

In one instance, where a bar was loose from one of the cages, and a tiger was endeavoring to make his exit, two men stood by the opening with clubs and beat back the animal until one of Mr. Forepaugh's employees reached the scene and replaced the iron bar. A lion succeeded in getting free, but as the huge brute was about to pass down the street some of the firemen seized a large packing box, and throwing it over the dangerous customer, held him prisoner until after the fire was extinguished.

The animals themselves were evidently frightened, and only sought, after their escape, places where they could hide.

Some of the employees of Mr. Forepaugh started in pursuit of the fugitive animals. The tigress was found in the cellar of a building about two squares distant from the fire, where she had taken refuge; she was easily captured. The leopard ran up Jefferson street to Twenty-first, when perceiving the open door of a dwelling, in he ran, passing, on his way to the parlor, one or two ladies. They at first supposed the brute a large dog, but after they discovered its true character precipitately left the place. Mr. Forepaugh's assistants some time afterwards were informed of his whereabouts and captured him.

A Bengal tiger effected its escape by the breaking of a plank in the den during its removal, and started off up Ridge avenue, followed by a boy. The animal jumped over a fence and went into the dining-room of the residence of a physician. It then passed through the kitchen and into the yard, and so to the stable, where it was captured by some of the menagerie folks and safely secured.

At Twenty-third and Jefferson streets something walked up the steps of a residence where three ladies were standing looking at the fire. One or them, thinking the thing was a dog, kicked at it, but the thing would not be driven off that way, and walked into the house, the ladies making room for it when they found it would not be kicked away. A man suddenly dashed by the ladies and into the house, where he found the thing he was in search of—a Brazilian tiger—in the kitchen, amusing itself with a cat. Whether his ligership was playing around the cat until it recovered its breath after its excitement, and then intended to devour it, does not transpire, for the man suddenly threw a carpet over the animal and bore it off in triumph. The lady who kicked at the tiger of course fainted at the brave act she had so thoughtlessly committed.

Mr. Forepaugh's loss is estimated to be between $80,000 and $40,000.

In the Parliamentary elections in England, so far as the results are known the Liberals have elected two hundred and seven members, a gain of forty-five, whilst the Conservatives, or Tories, have elected only seventy-five. It is quite evident that the Liberals will have a large majority in the new House of Commons. The elections have been attended by numerous and serious riots in the larger towns, the services of the military being required for their suppression.

The influential position of Archbishop of Canterbury has been conferred upon Bishop Tait of London. In the present political agitation, Dr. Tait, like all the Anglican Bishops of Great Britain and Ireland, is an opponent of Mr. Gladstone's bill for the disestablishment of the Irish Church. In religious questions he is regarded as a moderate Broad Church man, who is in favor of allowing to every party in the Church the greatest liberty. He is distinguished for his theological learning, having received his theological education partly at the German University.

A recent Paris despatch says that it is reported that a Spanish Republic has been proclaimed at Madrid. The report is probably premature, if not altogether unfounded. With regard to the coming elections in Spain, there seem to be only two parties fully organized. The one is the Republican, evidently representing a minority of the population, but very active and visibly growing and increasing in influence. The second party is a coalition of the Liberal Union, the Progressists, and that part of the Democrats who think the monarchical form of government the only one for the present corresponding with the wishes of the majority of Spaniards, though they profess to consider the republican form of government the best, and to hope for its future introduction into Spain.

RAILROAD ITEMS.

President Loats and a number of the Board of Directors of the Frederick and Pennsylvania Railroad Company with Mr. Haydon as Civil Engineer, started out on the 16th, for the purpose of making a primary observation for a survey of the route and placing it under contract as speedily as possible.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of prominent and influential gentlemen was held in Washington, D. C. on the 12th inst., to consider the hitherto much agitated project of the "Air Line Railroad" connection with New York City; and also to institute, if possible, measures looking to Western and North Western connections by rail.

The topography of the country from Washington to Frederick City, Md., and up the valley of the Monocacy to the Pennsylvania line, and through the State of Pennsylvania to Harrisburg, is most favorable for a first class railroad, and if this road should be built it would open up invaluable railroad connections with New York City, and the North and North West, and become a great postal route.

We understand that arrangements are being made to effect a preliminary survey of the Chesapeake and Lake Erie Railroad. Middletown, Md., it is said, has subscribed $400 for this purpose, and subscriptions are being taken up at various other places along the proposed route.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company have acquired, by purchase, the coal lands of the Locust Mountain Coal and Iron Company, the Coal Ridge Company, and one-half the coal lands of the Trevorton Company. The consideration price paid for those acquisitions amounts, it is said, to less than one and a half millions of dollars, payable in first mortgage Lehigh Valley Railroad bonds. The object of the purchase is, doubtless, the securing of coal tonnage to the Lehigh and Mahanoy Branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and also to the Lehigh Valley main trunk, from the Shamokin coal region.

Under the management of the Messrs. Collins, the South Mountain R. R. is making rapid progress. Already have some four miles of the road been graded, extending from the junction with the Cumberland Valley R. R., below the Gas House to the head of "Bonnybrook." By the first of January it is expected that the Road will be graded the whole way to Mt. Holly.

No text-books ever taught us so much concerning the western half of the American continent as the surveyors and builders of the Pacific railroad have done and are doing. We have been accustomed to think of the Rocky Mountains as a series of impassable crags, frightful precipices, and unattainable canons. The builders of this road have reached and crossed the summit at an elevation of 8,262 feet above the sea level, without any grade greater than 90 feet to the mile, and that only for a short distance. What has been called the "Great American Desert" has been found to have such rich agricultural resources that Nebraska, which lies almost wholly within the confines of that suppositious "Desert" produces more wheat to the acre than any other grain raising State of the Union.

On Wednesday night, Mr. Washburne, speaking in Galena, said: "The election of General Grant means that the country shall have peace; that the people shall have an honest and economical administration of the Government; that the flag shall be everywhere respected; the rights and liberty and property of all men, of all colors and climes, shall be protected and vindicated throughout the length and breadth of the land."

SAN FRANCISCO is a Democratic city. It repeats New York and Philadelphia in gigantic naturalization frauds, while it beats New York in city government. Corruption funds abound. And then, too, it has taxes—such taxes! New York pales before them. 150,000 souls inhabit San Francisco—taxes for State and city purposes, $4,126,-847, estimated for 1868-9. Ratio per head $28. This is certainly Democratic. So it goes; Democracy and corruption—Democracy and taxation.

GENERAL HOWARD, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, has submitted his annual report. It shows an expenditure of $8,977,000. There were expended for school purposes $1,154,000, of which sum the freedmen paid $360,000; Northern benevolent societies $700,000, and the Bureau $94,000. He thinks there is no necessity for continuing the Bureau beyond the time fixed by law, January 1st.

Our debt statement this month is particularly pleasing, showing a reduction since October 1 of $7,514,186.13, and leaving the sum total but $2,527,129,572.82. From this amount should be deducted the Union Pacific Railroad bonds, $42,194,000, which are in fact but an endorsement, making our actual liability $2,484,935,572.

FOUR hundred and seventeen male and twelve female convicts in the Indiana Penitentiary have made that institution self-supporting during the past year, and added a little to its treasury. The State appropriation of $18,500 has not been touched.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

BERKS.—One of the bells on Trinity Church, in Reading, is one hundred and thirteen years old. It was removed a few days since to the chapel. It weighs about 600 pounds, and bears the following inscription, cut in the solid metal: "This bell is for the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation, of Reading. Imported by Henry Keppele, of Philadelphia, Pa." Newspaper mention of the bell was made on the first building erected where Trinity Church now stands, in 1752. When that building was torn down and the present structure erected, in 1790, the bell was transferred to the new building. Now it goes to the chapel.

AT WORK.—The Gettysburg Springs Company are actively at work on their street Railway. The grading has been nearly completed, and the ties are now being laid in Chambersburg street, to run direct to the depot.

"CASHIER."—Reports having become current that Dr. T. T. TATE had parted with his famous horse "Cashier," we are requested to say that the horse is in Dr. TATE's possession, at his stable in Gettysburg, and will remain there, he having no intention at present to part with him.

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—By advertisement in to-day's paper, Rev. Dr. MORRIS, of Baltimore, will lecture in Agricultural Hall, on Friday evening Dec. 4—subject, "How to Read," with illustrations. Dr. MORRIS has rare capacity as a popular lecturer, and a fine literary entertainment may be expected.

RE-UNION.—The meeting of the Lutheran Synod of Maryland and the Melancthon Synod, at Frederick, last week, resulted in a union of the two Synods under the title of "The Maryland Synod." The sessions were harmonious. Among the resolutions adopted was one pledging the support of the Synod to the Seminary and College in this place as of primary importance.

A SWINDLER.—We understand that a man by name of J. W. McKNIGHT, representing himself to be a member of Columbus Lodge No. 9, I. O. O. F., Ohio, has been imposing on members of the Order, travelling from place to place, and borrowing money. The Gettysburg and Chambersburg Lodges have been buffered. He turns out to be an expelled member of the Order, and the membership should be on their guard.

RAILROAD CHANGE.—On and after Monday next, the morning train will leave at 9 o'clock, returning at 12.30; and the afternoon train will leave at 1, returning at 4.45. The morning train will make close connections for York and Harrisburg; the afternoon for Baltimore. As no morning train for Baltimore passes the Junction in time for connection, the afternoon train will afford us our only Baltimore connection. Changes on the Northern Central, beginning on Sunday next, have required this change.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—There is a new and dangerous $2 note on the issue of the Sixth National Bank of Philadelphia. It is not very well executed. A little caution will at once discover its falsity. The clouds above the female on the left end have a scratchy appearance; the shading under the words "National Bank" is coarse and irregular. The paper is of a blueish tint. The engraving on the back is coarse. Better examine all bills of this denomination carefully, as the plate will undoubtedly be altered to suit other banks.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.—Moses Hartman, Esq., has been sworn in as County Commissioner, in place of Samuel Wolf, whose term expired. Mr. Wolf made a capital officer and retires with the good will of all who have had business to transact with the Commissioners' office. The board now consists of Messrs. Nicholas Wierman, Jacob Lott and Moses Hartman—with Mr. Wierman as President.

The following appointments have been made for the ensuing year: Clerk, J. M. Walter, Esq.; Attorney, Wm. McClean, Esq.; Physician to jail, Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal; Court-house Keeper, Michael Rapp.

SALES.—Sheriff HANN on Saturday last sold the Real Estate of Jacob Fulwieler, in Mummasburg—Lot No. 1 for $60, and Nos. 2, 3 and 4 for $405; Wm. McClean, Esq., purchaser.

Daniel H. Klingel has purchased of Messrs. O'Neal, Duncan and Fahnestock, the southern-most house on the Vandersloot lot, on Baltimore street, at $1,400. Mr. Klingel intends to take down the old building and substitute a new brick building.

Paul Sowers has purchased from John Hartman the Thomas Orr farm in Highland township.

Jacob Baker has purchased from Peter Beitler 5 acres in Mountjoy township for $75.

Christian Hoffman has purchased from Peter Thorn his house and lot on Washington street, near High, for $1200.

David Kendlehart, Executor of estate of James Bowen, deceased, has sold to Thomas O. Enoch, of Philadelphia, 1½ vacant lots on West Middle street, for $300.

TO CURE A COLD.—The following from Hall's Journal of Health ought to be known by everybody. To follow this would save thousands of lives annually:—"The moment a man is satisfied that he has taken cold, let him do three things: First, eat nothing; second, go to bed, cover up, in a warm room; third, drink as much cold water as he can, or as he wants, or as much herb tea as he can; and in three cases out of four he will be well in thirty-six hours. To neglect a cold for forty-eight hours after the cough commences, is to place himself beyond cure until the cough has run its course—about a fortnight. Warmth and abstinence are certain cures when applied early.—Warmth keeps the pores of the skin open, and relieves it of the surplus which oppressed it, while abstinence cuts off the supply of phlegm, which would otherwise be coughed up.

NARROW ESCAPE.—We notice in the Mason city (Ills.) News of the 5th instant, that WM. SWEENEY, formerly of Gettysburg, had a narrow escape from death while working at a fire on the previous Sunday night. The News says:

Mr. Wm. Sweeney, conductor on the night accommodation, came very near losing his life in the following manner. He ran a board from Wyan's building to the roof of the saloon, then walked the plank and got on the roof. There he worked manfully until the roof began to fall in, when he started to go back, but, horror! the plank had been taken in! To stand still was certain death! With the energy of despair, and while the roof was quivering under him, he dashed through the window, taking with him the sash, glass and all. In another instant the roof fell in. Mr. S. was somewhat cut by the glass. He deserves the thanks of the community for his noble endeavors to save the endangered property.

On the succeeding Wednesday night a building occupied by Mr. JAMES LASHEL, also of Gettysburg, as a Paint Shop, was destroyed by fire—both fires being attributed to incendiarism.

Mr. Wolf made a capital officer and retires with the good will of all who have had business to transact with the Commissioners' office. The board now consists of Messrs. Nicholas Wierman, Jacob Lott and Moses Hartman—with Mr. Wierman as President.

The following appointments have been made for the ensuing year: Clerk, J. M. Walter, Esq.; Attorney, Wm. McClean, Esq.; Physician to jail, Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal; Court-house Keeper, Michael Rapp.

SALES.—Sheriff HANN on Saturday last sold the Real Estate of Jacob Fulwieler, in Mummasburg—Lot No. 1 for $60, and Nos. 2, 3 and 4 for $405; Wm. McClean, Esq., purchaser.

Daniel H. Klingel has purchased of Messrs. O'Neal, Duncan and Fahnestock, the southern-most house on the Vandersloot lot, on Baltimore street, at $1,400. Mr. Klingel intends to take down the old building and substitute a new brick building.

Paul Sowers has purchased from John Hartman the Thomas Orr farm in Highland township.

Jacob Baker has purchased from Peter Beitler 5 acres in Mountjoy township for $75.

Christian Hoffman has purchased from Peter Thorn his house and lot on Washington street, near High, for $1200.

David Kendlehart, Executor of estate of James Bowen, deceased, has sold to Thomas O. Enoch, of Philadelphia, 1½ vacant lots on West Middle street, for $300.

TO CURE A COLD.—The following from Hall's Journal of Health ought to be known by everybody. To follow this would save thousands of lives annually:—"The moment a man is satisfied that he has taken cold, let him do three things: First, eat nothing; second, go to bed, cover up, in a warm room; third, drink as much cold water as he can, or as he wants, or as much herb tea as he can; and in three cases out of four he will be well in thirty-six hours. To neglect a cold for forty-eight hours after the cough commences, is to place himself beyond cure until the cough has run its course—about a fortnight. Warmth and abstinence are certain cures when applied early.—Warmth keeps the pores of the skin open, and relieves it of the surplus which oppressed it, while abstinence cuts off the supply of phlegm, which would otherwise be coughed up.

NARROW ESCAPE.—We notice in the Mason city (Ills.) News of the 5th instant, that WM. SWEENEY, formerly of Gettysburg, had a narrow escape from death while working at a fire on the previous Sunday night. The News says:

Mr. Wm. Sweeney, conductor on the night accommodation, came very near losing his life in the following manner. He ran a board from Wyan's building to the roof of the saloon, then walked the plank and got on the roof. There he worked manfully until the roof began to fall in, when he started to go back, but, horror! the plank had been taken in! To stand still was certain death! With the energy of despair, and while the roof was quivering under him, he dashed through the window, taking with him the sash, glass and all. In another instant the roof fell in. Mr. S. was somewhat cut by the glass. He deserves the thanks of the community for his noble endeavors to save the endangered property.

On the succeeding Wednesday night a building occupied by Mr. JAMES LASHEL, also of Gettysburg, as a Paint Shop, was destroyed by fire—both fires being attributed to incendiarism.

THE GRECIAN BEND!—Notwithstanding the efforts of the newspapers to prevent the adoption of the Grecian Bend, the "crook" is gradually finding favor with the devotees of fashion. At first it was confined to the large cities, where it has become quite common, but it is now being introduced into the interior cities and towns.

This new style of ladies' dress has been the subject of many newspaper articles. Below we copy a few paragraphs as samples of what is said of the Bend:

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: "We consider it the most humiliating stoop that female folly has yet condescended to."

The Harrisburg State Guard says: "We noticed a lady yesterday with her head thrown forward like a ship's jib boom, or a truculent goose on the war path, while she hobbled along with a rheumatic "teeter" described by a Saratoga writer as like the locomotion of a lame kangaroo."

The New Lisbon Journal says: "A young lady of this place has discovered the most economical way to produce the Grecian Bend, and is anxious that we should give the public the benefit of her discovery. Here it is: Rise in the morning before breakfast, on an empty stomach eat one pint of green chestnuts, two large green apples, one stale watermelon, half pound of raw cabbage, and a quarter of a pound of honey. A little milk and vinegar will add to the effect. The bend in the most approved form will appear in about an hour, and the young lady can put a camp kettle on her back for a hump, and take the street with the most confident assurance that the bend will continue for several hours.

The following is from some one who is evidently of the opinion that the bend is bound to become popular; Comic singers may try to sing it down; paragraphists to write it down; little boys to laugh it down; servants girls to imitate it down; medical men to frighten it down; clerical satirists to preach it down; but it won't go down, the Grecian Bend won't! No, sir! Go to New York, and on any fine day you will see it upon the promenade, street it at the park, brush against it at the theatre. It is like the oak; it is a bender, but there's is no break to it. The harder you throw it down, the higher it bounces up, like an Indian rubber ball. All women have got to bend before long, or they will be counted out of the pale of society. It's lovely woman' will thus 'stoop to folly,' why, let her stoop."

We conclude this article by calling the attention of our readers to the following "Grecian Ode," which we find in one our exchanges:

She stopped upon the platform—
Her grace I can't for get—
For on it used Grecian bend of hers
Clings to my memory yet.
Her smile was like the sunbeam;
Her bonnet "some," you bet;
But that lovely Grecian bend of hers
Was the "heaviest" bend I met.
Her waterfall was gorgeous,
And all who saw contend
That her grace was never equaled
By the Saratoga bend.
But alas, for maiden beauty,
Dust will return to dust,
And the most enchanting bender
Is doomed to moth and rust.
In stooping to assume her seat,
(I hate to tell, but must)
Some whalebone thing that staid her up
Bent double—and then "bust!"
She softly sighed, and sweetly smiled,
And then in accents tender,
As she rubbed her back, she gently said:
"Thank Heaven, I'm off my bender!"

MUSICAL TREAT.—By the advertisement in another column, it will be seen that Prof. JAMES G. CLARK, of Utica, New York, the distinguished Vocalist, will be in Gettysburg next week, and will give an entertainment in Agricultural Hall, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 24. Mr. CLARK has a deservedly high reputation, not only as a Vocalist but as a Composer, being the author of a number of popular songs, "The Old Mountain Tree," "Rock of Liberty," "No Tears in Heaven," "Children of the Battle-field," "Beautiful Silver Sea," &c. His "Children of the Battle-field," suggested by the finding of the daguereotype of Sergeant Hummiston's three children on the battle field of Gettysburg, is a prize production. Mr. CLARK accompanied the National Teacher's Association on their visit to Gettysburg several years ago, and his singing then attracted much attention. We bespeak for him a full house.

ADVERTISE.—Business men should bear in mind that there is nothing in these days of competition, like advertising—nothing so sure of paying a large per cent. when a man has something to sell, as to let the public know where his goods can be found.

FINE STEEL ENGRAVINGS.—Mr. LEVI MELLY is now canvassing this place for two fine Steel Engravings—one from Eastlake's great painting of "Christ Blessing Little Children," and the other from Dobson's famous painting of "Christ in the Manger,"—both engraved in Sartain's best style. Both these pictures should be suspended in every home, especially where there are children. Mr. MELLY is also agent for several larger engravings executed by Sartain—"Christ Rejected," after Benjamin West's celebrated painting, and "Christ Stilling the Tempest," after the painting by Hamilton, the great marine artist. All of these engravings are gems, and we commend them to the favorable consideration of our readers.

DEMONSTRATION AT HANOVER.—The Republicans of Hanover had arranged for a grand jollification on Tuesday night last, to consist of an ox roast, torchlight procession, illumination, &c.—The rain, however, sadly interfered with the demonstration. The illumination and torchlight procession were postponed, and the crowd, after feasting on roast beef, turkey, &c. gathered in the town hall, where R. STOCKETT MATHEWS, of Baltimore, for two hours entertained them with one of his matchless speeches. A large delegation had arranged to leave Gettysburg, to unite in the demonstration. Notwithstanding the rain, about 100 went down in a special train to hear Mr. MATHEWS.

THE MORNINGGLORY.—Col. C. H. BUEHLER has received a large assortment of these famous base-burning Stoves, which on the score of economy, cleanliness, easy management, and general utility stand unrivalled and defy competition. The great demand for them last season taxed the capacity of the Manufacturers to meet the demand. They are much improved and will doubtless are long take the place of all other stoves for parlor, office the sough has run its course of about a fortnight. Warmth and abstinence are certain cures when applied early.—Warmth keeps the pores of the skin open, and relieves it of the surplus which oppressed it, while abstinence cuts off the supply of phlegm, which would otherwise be coughed up.

LITERARY NOTICES.

☞ The "New York Observer" is one of the best of our Religious newspapers, furnishing weekly a large amount of secular and religious information. The proprietors offer special premiums for new subscribers. See advertisement.

☞ We direct the reader's attention to the announcement of HARPER & BROTHERS, in another column, giving terms, &c., of their publications for 1869—the "Monthly," "Weekly," and "Bazar." All three are well known as firmly established in popular favor, that we need but direct attention to them.

THE ADVANCE.—The reader's attention is directed to the advertisement of this paper in another column. "The Advance" started only a year ago, and already reached the front rank of religious journals. Conducted with much ability, catholic and fraternal in spirit, we cordially commend it to our readers as one of the best religious journals in the country.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The November number of this representative American Magazine is before us, freighted with rich and varied contents. The ATLANTIC has for contributors many of the best writers in the country, and is edited with ability. Next year, greater attractions than usual are promised. Publishers, Fields, Osbourn & Co., Boston. Terms $3 a year.

THE LITTLE PILGRIM.—This sprightly little Juvenile has donned a new buff "overcoat," and what is better keeps up its reputation as one of the best Children's monthly issued from the press.—GRACE GREENWOOD, the popular juvenile writer, is the editor and writes exclusively for its pages. The publisher offers liberal premiums for 1869, and will send a specimen number gratis to any person desiring it. Seventy-five cents a year; 5 copies for $3.50; L. K. LIPPENCOTT, publisher, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia.

"DEMOREST'S MONTHLY."—The Christmas number of this admirably conducted magazine is out, and is really a gem. The fashions are profuse, the contents, literary and artistic, of the highest class. There is a beautiful illustrated Household department; music, and each worth the cost of the magazine. We do not see how any lady can afford to be without it. It has, moreover, none of the frivolity of the ordinary class of fashion magazines, but much of the high tone, and sensible, practical character of the best European Monthlies. Subscribe for it. $3 per year, with a premium. Published at 473 Broadway, N. Y.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—The enterprising publishers of th is capital Magazine for the young, announce that the editorial management will hereafter be under the immediate control of J. T. THE ORIENTAL COAL STOVE.—S. G. Cook has received another lot of these celebrated stoves, being the 3d lot this season, the great demand for the Oriental proves its excellence. It is by far the cheapest, handsomest and best base burning stove in the market, and becomes a favorite where ever introduced, a cheerful ornament in the parlor, a convenience in the dining room and a necessity every where. Being a self feeding, perpetual burner, economical in the use of coal, easily managed and possessing greater heating capacity than any other, it maintains its supremacy among base burners, as it fully deserves. "In the midst of life we are in death." How true is this sad expression as we see it verified in the sudden death of MAGGIE MARSHALL, whose prospects as for weeks back bid fair for a long life. Though she has finished her earthly race, "she is now, I hope, blooming in flowers in Paradise." Not alone by her bereaved friends will she be mourned, but by all who knew her; and she will ever be fresh in the memory of her schoolmates, to whom she was always kind and cheerful. Buried with her relatives, will remember "She is not dead, but gone before." Farewell, Maggie, for to-morrow,
Only rest thou till one longer race
And heavier toils shall close,
Then shall we seek thy resting place
And share thy long repose.

THE INDEPENDENT FARMER.

Let sailors sing of the windy deeps
Let soldiers praise their armor,
But in my heart this toast I will keep—
The Independent Farmer.

When first the rose in robe of green
Unfolds the crimson lining,
And 'round his cottage porch is seen
The honeysuckle twining;
When banks of bloom their sweetness yield
To bees that gather honey,
He drives the team across the field,
Where skies are soft and sunny.

The blackbird clucks behind the plow,
The quail pipes loud and clear,
You orchard hides behind its bough
The home he loves so dear;
The gray and old barn doors unfold
His ample store in measure,
More rich than heaps of hoarded gold,
A precious, blessed treasure;
While yonder in the porch there stands
His wife, the lovely charmer,
The sweetest rose on all his lands,
The Independent Farmer.

To him the Spring comes dancingly,
To him the Summer blushes;
The Autumn smiles with mellow ray,
His sleep old Winter hushes.
He cares not how the world may move,
No doubts or fears confound him;
His little flock are linked in love,
And household angels round him;
He trusts in God and loves his wife,
Nor grief nor ills may harm her;
He's Nature's nobleman in life—
The Independent Farmer.

WALKING HORSES.

The best gait a horse ever had for every day use is a good walk. It is a gait that one in ten possesses. Colts are not trained to walk in the Eastern States. Young America wants more speed. Kentucky has more good walking horses than any other State, for there horseback travelling has long been in fashion for men and women, over a country where muddy roads at times rendered any other gait impossible, and so horses have been bred for the saddle and trained to a walking gait. This is also the case in all the Western States, and perhaps might have been so in New England when our grandmothers rode to meeting on a pillion behind our grandfathers. But one-horse wagons have put horseback riding out of fashion, and now a good walking horse is more rare than one that can trot a mile in 2.40.

At the Springfield (Mass.) horse show of 1860, the writer was one of the committee to award prizes to the two best walking horses. Out of seventeen entered the committee found but one which was considered a first-rate walker. This was a Morrill mare, which walked five miles an hour with ease. Two others were fair walkers, and the rest knew no gait that could be called walking. At the New York State Fair the same state of facts was again developed. A letter from Wisconsin says: "I think horses trained to walk fast would be a greater benefit to our farmers in general than fast trotters, as almost all of their work has to be done with a walk."

I once knew a man in Massachusetts who, before the railroads were built, kept from two to four teams at work on the road, and never allowed them to trot at all, and made the distance in quicker time than his neighbors, who made their horses trot at every convenient place. He said that when a horse commenced to walk after a trot, he walked much slower than his common gait, if kept on a walk, and thereby lost more than he gained. Will farmers think of this, and pay more attention to walking horses?—Farmer's Home Journal.

ITEM.—A Pennsylvania farmer reports to the Country Gentleman that the Cayuga Chief, which is considered the best potato for profit, outstrips any other potato he raises. He gets this year, 500 bushels an acre, where the Peach Blow goes less than 400 and the Harrison about 200.——Rarey kept restless horses still, when cleaning them, by putting a wooden bit, an inch and a-half in diameter, in their mouths. That gave them something besides the currycomb to occupy their attention.——A better way than tying and hanging up herbs in bunches, to keep them through the winter, is to thoroughly dry them, then rub them fine and bottle them.——It is a curious fact that hens which have been eating locusts lay eggs with yolks nearly white.——Mr. Barry, of the nursery firm of Ellwanger & Barry, Rochester, N. Y., raised sixty-four hundred quarts of Wilson strawberries on five-eighths of an acre, this year.——There is very little nutriment in bran, but a cow well fed with nutrious food will give a largely increased amount of milk when fed with an additional ration of bran. Somehow it touches the milk-secreting organs just right.——Grazing animals eat more than their peck of dirt. A fresh sod, occasionally thrown into the manger of those that are kept stalled, will be eaten as if dirt was good living.——The Journal of Chemistry states that a pint of permanganate of potash turned into a musty barrel will make it as sweet as new in a five minutes' rinsing. A good thing to remember——When fed with a liberal amount of meal, a bushel of carrots is said to be worth as much as a bushel of oats for horses or cows. Six hundred bushels can be raised to the acre.——If drivers would sit on the left side of their wagon seats they could better avoid collision when "turning out" for other teams.——Hall's Journal of Health says that cranberries, dried a short time in the sun and placed in bottles filled with them, and then closed with sealing-wax, will keep in good condition for several years.

RATS—THE BEST TREATMENT.—A correspondent of the Country Gentleman believes in poison, and his method removes about the only objection to its use—the nuisance of having their dead carcasses in places about the house:

I kept my premises comparatively free from rats by giving them poison at all seasons of the year. I never place poison at all for rats in my house, in summer, but give them plenty of it at the barn, whenever they appear. Keep their haunts well supplied there, and there is no necessity for using any at the house, for as is well known, rats take free range during the night, passing backwards and forth from house to barn, and from one premises to those adjoining or neighboring. If the poison administered is effective at all, the victim will not get far from the spot where it was partaken. Thus can you exterminate rats, and yet be free from the offensive results of having them dead in or about your house. The recipe is as follows: Mix one ounce of finely powdered arsenic, and one ounce of lard with meal into a stiff dough; put it about the haunts of the rats. They will eat it greedily, and it makes them so thirsty that they will die near the water, of which they drink. They partake readily of the poison; the arsenic being sweetish and not at all offensive, and thereby I have rid my place of them repeatedly. I place places the size of a large pea, on chips within their reach, being careful to put it out of the way of the poultry.

LIKE UPON LIKE.—A dabbler in literature and the fine arts who prided himself on his knowledge and proper use of English language, came upon a youngster sitting on the bank of a mill pond, angling for gudgeons and thus addressed him:

"Adolescence, art thou not endeavoring to entice the finny tribe to engulph into their denticulated mouths a barbed hook, upon whose point is fixed a dainty allurement?"

"No," said the boy, "I'm fishing."
